Bids for improvement of Cutting boulevard from Tenth to Twenty-third streets resulted in the contract being let to the Ransome Crumney company for $67,421.11. The next highest bid was $77,595.69, or more than $10,000 difference, by the Municipal Improvement company.

CARRANZA COMMANDS MUCH RESPECT FROM PEOPLE OF MEXICO

FRANCISCO CARRANZA.

Carranza, "the creation of Huerta in an exchange of clientelism" as the Constitutionalists express it, commands the highest personal respect of the Huertistas and the Carranzistas, as well as of the foreign folks in that zone of trouble. He is a distinguished jurist, who cares more for the bench than for politics, for fairness of policy than for intrigue. He has caused wide interest by his announcement that he proposes to retire in favor of General Venustiano Carranza, the rebel's chief, and that he only seeks the proclaiming of a general amnesty and protecting of property.

CITY ENGINEER HANDS REPORT TO CITY DADS FOR YEAR JUST ENDED

More Than Ten Miles of Sewers Have Been Laid, Costing $73,369.37; City Is Now Nearly Served, Says Chapman.

WILL OPEN MANY STREETS

Plans Under Way for Opening Boulevard Running From Ashland Ave. to Northern Limits of City of Richmond.

According to a report of the city engineer to the city council last night, there have been 10 miles of sewers laid in the city, which cost the city $73,369.37, of which $67,291.33 was paid for the actual construction. Nearly nine miles of streets have been completed at a cost of $460,339.62, of which $441,391.90 was spent for actual work.

"With the completion of the main sewer discharging at Market street, and the main outfall, the city will be completely sewered," says the report.

The following streets are now in process of opening and widening proceedings: Twenty-third street north of the Santa Fe railway, Twenty-third street south of the Santa Fe railway, Tenth street north and south of the Santa Fe railway, Seventh street under the Santa Fe railway main line, Main street through the Santa Fe railway property, Virginia street through the Santa Fe property, Florida street through the Santa Fe property, Fourteenth street into Roosevelt avenue, Fifth street across the Santa Fe property, Eighth street across the Santa Fe property, Cutting boulevard at Sixteenth street.

Plans are also under preparation for the opening of a boulevard starting from Ashland avenue and Barrett avenue to the northerly city line, to connect with Castro street, and for an ocean boulevard running from the new municipal tunnel to Schofield avenue.

ORDINANCE IS TURNED DOWN BY COUNCIL

Document as Drawn Would Prohibit Pedestrians From Crossing Any Railroad Property in City Including Tracks.

Having passed its first reading, the proposed city ordinance prohibiting pedestrians to trespass upon railroad property came to a halt at the city council last night.

"It is too strong," said Councilman Follett. "It don't look good to me. It covers any railroad crossing in the city the way it stands now, and I wouldn't want to be called up to bail one of my kids out of jail simply because he had crossed a railroad track on his way home from school. That is what could happen with the ordinance reading the way it does."

The matter of class legislation brought up much discussion, resulting in the calling upon City Attorney Hall to draw a new ordinance prohibiting pedestrians from passing through any railroad tunnel in the city of Richmond. Hall said that this could be done.

VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Alexander of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Brien, of the same city, are visiting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Shaw.

EX-RICHMONDER KILLED AT REDDING

Special to the News.

Redding, Aug. 10.—Roy Guthrie, 28, engineer for the local power plant, was killed at an early hour this morning while crossing the Southern Pacific tracks on the way home. He failed to hear the whistle or noise of the approaching train and was struck so violently that death was instantaneous.

Guthrie is well known in Richmond, having lived here for some time about eight years ago. He is an uncle of Miss Pauline Williams of this city and a brother-in-law of Special Officer Charles Manke. Though definite arrangements have not been made, it is thought that the body will be brought here for interment.

J. P. PHILPOTT ENJOYING VACATION TENDING TO THE SHIPMENT OF HIS PEACHES

Will Spend Another Three Weeks Caring for Crop of Prize Winning Peaches on His Pine Ranch at Atwater.

A letter from J. P. Philpott, the prominent avenue drygoods merchant, was to the effect that the marketing of the crop from his prize peach orchard at Atwater, Cal., is now occupying his entire attention. Though the weather is "warmish," he is enjoying his vacation in personally conducting the fruit packing and plans to be away another three weeks.

A tray of the delicious prize winner peaches and several prodigious bunches of grapes were distributed among the members of the Daily News force last night as conclusive proof of their superior quality.

J. HENRY GOEKE OF OHIO IS ACTIVE IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

REP. J. HENRY GOEKE OF OHIO.

A tall, serious-minded, spectacled statesman is Goeke, who has loomed considerably in his congressional terms. He is from the same district as "Bob" Gordon, the sergeant-at-arms of the House, which is some distinction, for everybody likes Gordon. Goeke is a conspicuous Democrat, a prodigious worker for his district and a student of big problems. He recently returned from Panama to get first-hand information about the canal to guide his vote on canal legislation. Once he laid the framework for the parcel post system in a bill which spurred the post-office committee to action on parcel post legislation.

MANY REPORTS SUBMITTED

Protests Will Be Heard on August 19; New City Ordinance Regulating Plumbing Inspectorship Is Passed.

The city council met last night to hear several protests, many new matters and to dispose of unfinished business.

Chief of Police Walker was directed to enforce the city ordinance demanding the payment of $5 a quarter from all rooming houses of more than six rooms, and to investigate the cafes adjoining saloons who were selling liquor to patrons. It is expected that a heavy license will be imposed on cafe owners who desire to sell to table trade.

A petition was received from residents in Stege asking for a fire hydrant at Bay avenue. The matter was referred to the fire committee.

S. Maggioni of the Gilt Edge saloon asked the council to reconsider the matter of granting him a liquor license. A protest from residents near the saloon was made to the council asking a denial of the license.

A communication was received from the Richmond Wharf and Dock Company and William G. Henshaw, claiming 143 acres of tide land. City Attorney Hall stated that the district was outside of the tide land law. August 19 was set for hearing of the protest.

Paul Dunlap, L. A. Dunlap and M. A. Hancock protested against the laying of sewers on Richmond and Railroad avenues. The protest will be heard August 19.

The tax collector submitted a report for the fiscal year, showing $2175.83 collected for business licenses, $5335 for retail liquor licenses and $11.50 for dog licenses. The total licenses collected were $9082.

City Health Officer Dr. Charles R. Blake submitted a letter explaining that he deemed it best to prevent the spread of measles to prohibit children under 12 years from attending Sunday schools and moving picture shows. His letter was in answer to much criticism of his actions. He reported 72 cases of measles for the month of July.

The ordinance creating a city planning board was considered unsuitable for the adoption of Richmond, and (Continued on Page Five.)

The material for wiring the house was donated by "a friend," who wished to assist in the work of completing the new edifice.

The ladies expressed themselves yesterday as highly appreciative of the work done by the various unions, and were much elated over the response which has been forthcoming from the working men in the city. A lunch was served on the ground, which was served and prepared by the ladies.

WAR ABROAD AND HUNGER AT HOME.

The war has sent food prices soaring in European cities. With hostilities hardly under way, there is great suffering among the poor in London and Paris and Berlin and Vienna. The war has closed the Russian storehouses and interrupted the lines of communication with the United States and Canada.

Outside of Russia, none of the European nations, with millions of men drawn from the fields to military service, is capable of supplying its population with food sufficient for all. The poor must go hungry or starve.

Fortunately situated as the United States is at this time, yet here the pinch of hunger will soon be felt. Food prices will respond to the famine prices of Europe. Wheat and flour are advancing in price, and other foodstuffs and meats will go bounding upward as soon as the interrupted freight service shall be resumed, which will be accomplished when the British and French navies shall have cleared the Atlantic of German cruisers and the fleets of merchant ships given the protection of convoys.

The cost of living has been a serious problem for the masses in our commercial and industrial centers. With war and famine prices prevailing, it will become a tragedy.

The government at Washington, under the direction of the Wilson administration, is exerting itself to the utmost in behalf of the small class of capitalists who control the financial situation and dominate our industrial affairs.

The printing presses are grinding out millions of paper money for their use. Every effort is being made to enable them to resume commercial relations with Europe, that they may profit from the necessities of the war-stricken nations. It can not be justly accused of neglecting the interests or welfare of the capitalist class. It has even appropriated millions of dollars and sent warships to European ports to bring home those tourists who have been unable to get their checks cashed or obtain passage. What it has done for these citizens who are in Europe is what it should do for its citizens in such an emergency. We have no complaint to offer because it has been "paternalistic" and has gone to the rescue of Americans when "private enterprise has failed them.

What we do insist upon is that the welfare of Americans who are unable to travel in Europe is just as material as the welfare of those whose means enable them to go abroad. We do insist that it should be as much the concern of the government that citizens living in New York or Pittsburg or Chicago or Milwaukee are hungry and reduced to destitution through the shutting down of mills and the advance in the cost of living as it is that Americans in Paris or Berlin caught in the maelstrom of war are suffering for the necessities of life.

The government of the United States—the executive and congress—repeatedly has "come to the rescue" of financial interests.

It has turned the treasury over to Morgan to "save the situation."

It has permitted bankers to issue fiat money and violate its own laws for the protection of the public.

It has loaned favored banks hundreds of millions of dollars without interest to keep money in circulation.

It has subsidized railways and dissipated the common heritage.

But—

It has never yet been moved to show concern in the welfare of the masses of the people in time of industrial stress and financial panic.

It has never undertaken public works to relieve the distress of the unemployed and reduce the pressure upon an overcrowded labor market.

The hunger of its own citizens has never disturbed it.

Whenever any proposal has been made to bring relief to the masses from the menace of unemployment and the suffering which the high cost of living has created, its author has been met with the objection that to insure employment to the workers and drive the wolf of hunger from their doors is "Socialistic" and "unconstitutional."

The motto of American individualism has been: "Millions to move the crops to Europe, but not a penny to avert hunger at home."

If it's "Socialistic" to keep the masses of the people from suffering for enough to eat in the midst of abundance, if it is "Socialistic" for the President and Congress to show the same concern in the welfare of the man who works in a factory as in that of the man who travels abroad to see the scenery and admire the ruins, then it's about time that we had some of it. There are millions of Americans who need it that they may have "this day their daily bread."

THE BATH OF BLOOD.

Europe has plunged beneath the crust of civilization back into the bloody depths of jungle savagery. She has taken down with her in the plunge all the cunningly devised machines of the industrial era, and is using them as the cave man used teeth and claws, to read human bodies.

By all the accumulated knowledge of the ages is this recrudescence of savagery, this international atavism back to the beast, worse than anything of which beasts and savages were capable. For the purposes of preparing the fluid for this ghastly bath all the inventive genius that has transferred the world and might have fed and clothed and housed and cared for the world in joyous peace has been prostituted to perfect marvelous mechanisms to rend human flesh.

The blood in which nations are plunging is primarily the blood of workingmen. That here and there some of the ruling class have themselves become intoxicated on their gory beverage and have entered the army as petty strutting tyrants and are sometimes killed does not alter the fact that the bodies that are now strowed the Belgian fields are those of the men who all their lives have toiled in misery that others might live in luxury, and have now died in slavery that others may rule.

There is but one great consolation in this hideous horror. That is what when Europe rises out of this bath it will rise cleansed from the foulness of militarism and class rule.

When this terror is over it is to be hoped that a Prussian Junker will no longer be squatted upon German culture, that a French bayonet will no longer be driven through the delicate artist life of France and that the whole foul incubus of military and industrial exploitation will have been washed off the body of civilization.

LEST WE FORGET.

The vital thing in the war in Europe today is not that this army or that army is winning victories and this navy or that navy sinking battleships or destroying commerce. In the game of war soldiers are pawns. The game is lost or won as a game of chess. There is no counting of the suffering and the sorrow and the anguish which are inflicted upon those who are moved about upon the board with no more voice or choice than the wooden figures with which the game of chess is played. But there is a human side. Every soldier is a man, taken from hearth and home, leaving behind those things that we all hold dear—friends, family and home.

"Don't cheer, boys, the poor devils are dying," Captain Jack Philip of the American navy cautioned his men as the Spanish ships at Santiago were being sunk. That is the human side. Let those of our citizens who are partisans of the Triple Alliance or the Triple Entente remember that every time their hearts are gladdened by news of victory, thousands of homes are blighted, thousands of young men who had no quarrel are killed, and other thousands crippled and maimed and left in their agonies on the field of battle to suffer the torments of pain and fever and thirst—torments even worse than death itself.

These men have had no quarrel. They are the pawns of war lords and governing classes and "world politics." War has been forced upon them by the surviving relics of feudalism—by czarism and kaiserism. If these men had no cause for quarrel, how infinitely less cause have our own citizens, far removed from the scene of conflict, to permit themselves to lose their sense of proportion and forget the appeal of a common humanity in this monumental crime against civilization.

UNBEARABLE BURDENS.

"It is difficult to see how the rest of the powers can avoid being drawn into the conflict if Russia comes to the aid of Serbia," said General Nelson A. Miles at the Hotel Somerset, Wednesday, "and no man can say what the end will then be.

"If Russia stays out and Germany backs up Austria, it will simply amount to Austria's taking possession of Serbia and doing what she pleases with that country.

"It will be a terrible conflict," he said, "for it means that there will be war between nations controlling some 20,000,000 men. Russia alone can put between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 men in the field, and they are much better prepared than they were in the war with Japan. The Russian army is now in good condition and very powerful.

"Germany can put 5,500,000 men in the field, Austria 500,000, France 2,000,000 and Italy 1,000,000. What Greece, Roumania and Bulgaria will be able to add to these numbers is not definitely known.

"I can not guess, either, how many men England could put in the field. Her standing army is not so very large, but if she calls on her territorial troops and her troops from India she can produce a vast army.

"Austria's army is in good condition, though it has not been engaged for many years. It is reported to be well recruited and finely trained.

"I agree with those who predict that this will be one of the bloodiest wars in all history and that it may very probably be the last great war.

"The cost of keeping 20,000,000 men will be enormous. Then there is the added cost of these men being withdrawn from producing industries, the cost of their equipment—which in these days is very high—and the cost of transportation of both men and supplies. The great debt which a war of this magnitude will plunge the people of the continent into simply can not be borne for any great length of time."

FOR SERIOUS THOUGHT.

The war in Europe has so diminished the revenues from customs duties that the administration is considering means to raise $200,000,000 a year from internal taxes.

The burden of taxes will fall the heaviest upon the working class. They have no representatives in Congress to demand that their economic interests shall be considered when taxes are to be levied upon war burdens adjusted.

With increased taxes will come higher cost of living. Yet there will be no compensation to the workers in mills and factories and field and forest and mine in increased wages and security of employment.

Government is ever ready to increase the burdens of the masses—never to lighten them.

"Unless the cost of living can be reduced," Dr. Scott Nearing testified before the industrial relations committee, "civilization in this country is a confessed failure."

With all of our boasted triumphs, with all of our wonderful inventions, with all of our great progress, we have yet to consider the welfare of the men whose labor has made public our national development.

Is it not time for the American people to face the economic problems which are being forced upon them and shake off the incubus that is dragging the masses down to lower standards of living and imperiling our very civilization?

A Horse Is Worthless
 Unless he is correctly shod. To shoe a horse correctly, a shoer must have experience and knowledge. I have studied shoeing for 16 years, having graduated from the shoeing school in Altona, Germany in August, 1902 and I ought to know something about it and I do. But I don't know it all, in fact I never expect to. You see there is so much to shoeing horses correctly that a man doesn't live long enough to learn it all. That's why you cannot afford to have an inexperienced man to work on your horses.

WAR NEWS.

Too much credence should not be placed in the war news that is now coming to America from Europe.

Germany has been completely isolated and communication with the United States closed.

All of the news that is received by the American press, including the news of the newspapers printed in German, comes through sources hostile to Germany. This news, in the very nature of things, even where there is a desire on the part of its senders to be impartial, is colored in response to their national sympathies.

It should be likewise understood that if the newspapers in the United States that are printed in German print "news" different from that published in English, it is written in their own offices. They are getting nothing from German sources.

There is no doubt that the people of Berlin are reading of great German successes and the uniform defeat of the empire's enemies in every skirmish.

War news, save where defeat is overwhelming, or the facts impossible to conceal, is designed to arouse the patriotic impulses of the masses and inspire them to greater sacrifices.

The truth would never do. It's too treasonable.

WHAT A TRIMMIN'!

CONCORD LOSES TO RICHMOND IN EASY GAME

Home Boys Get Twenty-three Hits And Take Twenty-one Runs; Heavy Hitting On Our Side Is Feature Of Up Country Match

The Richmond team journeyed to Concord, along with some 200 expectant fans, and although confidence of victory was in the home town air, the farce which passed for a baseball game was a genuine surprise.

With a score of 21 to 4, the Richmond Elks returned with one more victory to their credit, but with faces wearing the ashamed expression of a man caught stealing candy from a slumbering babe's fingers.

Casey, the "white hope" pitcher for Concord, who caused terror to rise in the throats of Richmond fandom, was sort of a fizzle on the mound. Some said he should have been "Casey at the bat," but even his slugging was a disappointment. It was rumored that if he made good at Sunday's game he was to be signed by Concord, but evidently the Concord team will get along without him.

The game was one of the greatest hitting contests which Richmond has figured in. The home boys got 23 hits and 21 runs. Hyatt won much applause for the local boys with a home run and two two-baggers.

Woodbury, Pingree and Cunningham pulled in three-baggers for Richmond, and C. Soares for Concord.

Young Murchio, 17-year-old high school lad, who has won much comment on his work, did some good playing, and attracted quite a bit of comment from Richmond.

Concord took their beating well. They just smiled and said, "We'll lick you one of these days," and with their usual plucky spirit, took things just as philosophically as though they had played and lost in a real baseball game.

Following is the box score:

OUTLAWS WALLUP BURNSTEINS 13 TO 1

HELLOW BROTHERS RENIG ON GAME AND OAKLANDERS ARE SUBSTITUTED

The Cheek Outlaws played the Burnsteins of Oakland at the Tenth and Lucas grounds Sunday, winning 13 to 1.

In spite of the uneven score, the Outlaws put up an interesting game, and the work of King on the mound brought out much favorable comment. He held the opposition team down to one hit.

MACCABEES LOSE TO CALWAS SUNDAY

JUICE MAKERS MAKE A GOOD SHOWING IN FIRST GAME WITH BERKELEYITES

The Calwas made a good showing in the first game with three of their crack men, and their manager gone. They took the glory of victory away from the Berkeley Maccabees by a score of 5 to 3. The game was played Sunday afternoon on the First street grounds.

Therber allowed 13 bingles and got tow men out of tight holes.

Moss was in the catcher's box for the Calwas. Howe did good work, getting four hits out of four times at bat. Another play which stirred up much noise from the Calwa boosters was an unassisted double play in the fourth inning by O'Mara.

Miller, who is acting manager of the team, during the absence of "Lefty" Richardson, knocked the only three-bagger of the game.

Batteries for the Maccabees were Banta and Small.

been added to the Outlaw's lineup, and their team promises to play with some fast teams and hold its own.

Their lineup is F. Moltoza, C. J. ss; Duarte, 2b; Joe Cordova, cf; Andrade, ss; A. Moltoza, 1b; Helwig, 2b; J. Cortoza, rf; Soto, lf; Ming, p.

Although many of the new members are good players, there are several names on the lineup which have not appeared in baseball circles before.

Manager Cheek has his eyes wide open for talent, and promises to collect a team that will put up some good stiff games within the next two or three weeks.

SPORT GOSSIP

WOODACRE was the scene of the Junior Olympics' picnic Sunday, and in addition to the good time, the lads were put through the paces before the eyes of Coach Foster and others. Much promising material was discovered, and some of the Seniors plan to keep their glims on the lads.

PTON'S SHAMROCK arrived in Beuda Sunday, and rumor has it that he will race. The New York Yac Club are anxiously awaiting word from the owner.

RIE landed in Frisco Sunday and is a match with Welsh or White.

PET. MA beat San Rafael, 8 to 7, in a closely contested game.

ELEVEN WEEKS remain of the 1914 baseball season in the Coast league, and the overwhelming favorite is proclaimed. The race appears to be between two teams.

SANTA R is still holding out against the prospect of playing with the Vallejos. S. R. Vallejo, are ye too fast?

KID MARCELL, a French white hope, six-footer, 200-pounder, and hailed as "some scrapping" is looking around Frisco, preferring to find a fight there than return to his native land.

HENRY HICKEY has been matched with Fitzsimmons to appear in the preliminaries at the Burns-Moy bout. It will be a battle between an old and a new favorite.

CHICKEN IS CAUSE OF SAN PABLO DEFEAT

GREGORY PARTAKES OF TWO FOWLS AND MAKES SIX ERRORS IN GAME

After a hearty chicken dinner, offered by the Hercules, the San Pablos went down to defeat on the Pinole diamonds Sunday afternoon by a score which Manager Dutra of the Pablons absolutely refuses to disclose.

"Too much chicken," quoth he.

From the best reports which can be gathered, the bloodthirsty San Pablo boys journeyed to Pinole with the full expectation of just unmercifully wallowing the Strong Men, but the temptation to partake of the chicken was too much, and they ate.

"Gregory ate two chickens," said Manager Dutra, "and made six errors as shortstop."

In spite of the fact that the score has not been divulged, the San Pablo boys say that they do not regret the game. The chicken was good and they learned a lesson which will make them wiser in the future. "Never again until the next time," say they all.

LOCALS FORWARD SYMPATHY TO MARTS

AMBROSE TAILORS WIN WITH SCORE OF 8 TO 7 AT MARTINEZ

It was with regret that the Richmond team heard yesterday that Martinez had fallen at the hame of the Ambrose Tailors in a second consecutive game. The game was close, the Tailors winning by a score of 8 to 7.

"Twill be too bad to have them lose two games straight, just when they need a little victory to cheer them up and keep them from committing harl kari, but it would have been rather nice to let them win a game before tackling us"—this by members of the Richmond Elks.

The game at Martinez was a good one. The two teams were evenly matched, the Tailors losing in the previous game by one point, and winning by Sunday's narrow margin.

But because a miss is as bad as a mile, the Richmonders would have lived the news that Martinez won before the defeat that is staring them in the face on the local grounds next Sunday.

CASTRO BUNCH GO DOWN BEFORE REDMEN

SCORE OF 16 TO 1 IS RESULT OF BASEBALL BATTLE ON LOCAL DIAMOND

The Castro Merchants of San Francisco lost to the Red Men Sunday, on the Sixth street diamond in a 16 to 1 shot game.

The local Red Men will soon find themselves up against the same proposition that Winehaven men—outclassed with their former playmates.

Dike Montoya pitched and proved himself too much for the Merchants' hurler. He allowed one hit, and made them work for that. The Red Men pulled in 16 runs out of 19 hits, and played the game well from start to finish.

Brown made a home run at a spectacular moment, and brought forth a burst of applause.

Tucker pitched for the home team.

The Red Men are drawing good crowds to their games, and are fast getting out of the rut of scrub teams. Their men are working hard, although not breaking into too heavy games all at once, figure on pulling off some games with some big teams before the close of the season.

TROLLEY LEAGUE

JOHN BROMLEY hurled the first game for the Olives in Sunday's game against Sacramento. The well known left-handed pitcher has signed up with Oroville for the season.

MARYSVILLE and Colusa having failed to cut salaries of their players, are causing SOME stir in league circles. The fact that the two towns can support their teams is causing just a hint at jealousy among some of their rivals.

COLUSA SAYS "divide the league season." Nobody's answered in the affirmative yet.

POINTERS WIN IN TWELVE INNING CONTEST

SCORE IS 10 TO 9 AND BOTH TEAMS FIGHT WITH MIGHT AND MAIN TO WIN

The Schram Juniors and Point Athletes tangled on the Lang diamond Sunday afternoon, and a 12-inning baseball battle resulted in a score of 10 to 9 in favor of the Pointers.

Percy Chamberlain and Heber Epperson did the spectacular work for the victorious team, while Dayna Cox and John Hark won favorable comment in spite of the losing game from their supporters.

Commencing Sunday the Pointers will book for their games with the Wright & Ditson booking house, and are looking forward to some fast teams for the balance of the season. Both teams are doing good work and

INDEPENDENTS TO PLAY RETURN GAME

The Richmond Independents, crack bowlers, will play their second game as members of the Pacific Coast league, at San Francisco Saturday, August 15, in a return game with the Iroquois.

The Iroquois fell to the mighty bowling ability of the home team of five crack players, and Saturday's game will be the second in a series of three.

The game is causing considerable comment in bowling circles, and many Richmond lovers of the game plan to make the trip to San Francisco to see the match.

The game will be bowled in the California alleys, 30 Turk street.

are drawing crowds of the younger sports to witness the games on Lang diamond.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

BY SCOOP

The high school was dismissed for the hour previous to noon yesterday in respect to the sad death of the first lady of the land. A short resume of her great work in the raising of model and admirable American family, and of the assistance she rendered the Chief Executive during her life was given by Principal Tucker.

By a unanimous vote the student body yesterday morning adopted the proposition of football for the coming year. The unanimity with which it was adopted cheered the hearts of the football boys, for they are assured of a boosting spirit from everybody.

The news was received from "Ping" Donnelly, '14, yesterday that his hours of work make it possible for him to turn out to practice with the football squad during the coming year and that he would like to get in and help the boys train to get Martinez' goat. "Ping" is the fastest inside five-eighties that ever wore a R. U. H. S. sweater.

"Bids" for the Student Affairs appointment to the office of Yell leader were called for yesterday by President Angell. There are several aspiring "contortionists" among the upper classmen, and it is expected that the bidding will be keen.

Politics moved fast at the school yesterday. A nomination committee was appointed from the several classes. They met and placed two men on the ballot for the filling of the office of treasurer, made vacant by the non-return of Herschel Frazier, treasurer-elect. The nominees for the office are Joe Sharp, '15, and Lawrence Cameron, '16. The election to fill the office will probably be held today.

Elmo Zumwalt of the class of '10, was a visitor at the high school yesterday. He returned Sunday from a vacation of hunting, fishing and farming in Mendocino county, and will return to school at the medical college of the State University on August 17.

The first social flare up of the coming year will be held on the evening of August 28, when the freshmen reception will be tendered the bashful members of the class of '18. The committees to handle the affair were named yesterday and are composed of: Entertainment, Miss Ferrier, Valera McLarney, Walter Hoffman, Vera Wyatt; music, Mrs. Louise Robinson, Holloway Jones, Emil Esola; reception, Alice Greathouse, Gladys Decker, Meta Ludwig, Irene Conn, Verna Scott and Maryana Mount; refreshments, Hazel Kilmer, Edith Selvy, Donald Grey and Clarence Cain; decorations, Dayna Cox, Miss Woodman, Rose Little, Grover Milnes, Ethel Hall, Earl McCann, Don McGregor, Paul Follett, Lawrence Cameron, Arthur Noyes and Ervin Barr.

Ralph Lewis, '14, was a visitor at school for a short time yesterday.

GOVERNATORIAL CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Charles King Speaks to Crowd on Business and Administration.

Charles King, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, spoke to an assembled crowd of about 150 at the corner of Seventh street and Macdonald avenue last night.

His speech was along good sound business lines and he stated in part: "I want to show the people of California that it is possible to find a man who is willing to be their servant while acting as their governor; willing to devote his entire time to the consideration of their best interests."

Yesterday he campaigned by means of his touring machine in the cities of Martinez, Concord, Antioch, Crockett and Pinole, and left last night for San Francisco.

He was conducted locally by W. F. Pettillon and A. C. Lang.
